

Licette Montejano, Member

Licette Montejano is a student in the Masters in Public Administration program at San Francisco State. Ms. Montejano is a PATH alumni and received her Bachelor's degree in Child and Adolescent Development with a concentration in Early Childhood Education. Ms. Montejano is a Jumpstart Site Manager and leads the coaching of students participating in the early practicum model. Before joining the EDvance team, Ms. Montejano worked in the field for eight years in a wide range of early education and care settings in Sacramento and San Francisco. Her experience within the classroom and her academic journey as a first-generation college student informs her efforts with the workforce she engages through EDvance and in her coaching with SF State students participating in the early practicum model.
