

Monica Walters, CPAC Chair

Monica joined Wu Yee from Cameron House, where she served as Executive Director from 2009-2012. Her education includes an M.A. in Education, Guidance and Counseling from Whitworth University, B.A. in Sociology from Gonzaga University, and a Certificate in Human Services Agency Management from the University of Washington. Through Monica's education and experience, she has an extensive background in advocacy to address early childhood education and development, chronic poverty, domestic violence, health care, and economic equality. As a highly experienced executive leader of nonprofits in Washington and the diverse social services community of San Francisco, Monica brings passion, commitment and more than 20 years of experience serving youth, families and ethnic communities. She is a member of the API Council of San Francisco and is 1st vice chair of the San Francisco Child Care Planning and Advisory Council (CPAC), as well as chair of CPAC's Legislation and Public Policy Committee.

