

Sheila Norman, Member

Sheila Norman is adjunct faculty in the Child Development and Family Studies Department at the City College of San Francisco. In addition to being the Site Coordinator for the Ocean Campus Child Development Lab School – Toddler Room, she is the campus coordinator for the California Early Childhood Mentor Program and the Child Development Training Consortium.

Mrs. Norman is certified on multiple early childhood quality improvement instruments, is a private consultant, trainer and mentor with the CA Early Childhood Mentor Program.

Prior to coming to City College of San Francisco, Sheila owned and directed a private San Francisco preschool for 18 years, which was accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC).

Earning a Master's Degree in Humanities and Leadership, Sheila is committed to the early care and education workforce; she is involved with many local organizations, participates in several advisory groups and serves on the Local Child Care Planning and Advisory Council. as a representative of City College.

