

CHILD CARE PLANNING & ADVISORY COUNCIL

Title 5 Contractors Workgroup | April 9, 2026 | 3:15pm - 4:30pm

MEETING NOTES

Welcome

Ben Wong and Cheryl Horney

3:20 p.m. – Updates on CPAC Workgroups and Responses to CSPP Questions

Ben Wong and Cheryl Horney

Ben Wong shared updates with members regarding changes to CPAC, clarifying that CPAC will now function as a working group rather than a community group. It was also shared that administrative responsibilities will be supported by the co-chairs, and a new calendar invitation has been distributed.

Responses to the CSPP questions were presented and reviewed on screen.

CSPP Questions from Title 5 Contractors – April 2026

3:30 p.m. – State Advocacy Letter and Updates

Mark Tao, CPAC Treasurer

Mark Tao shared updates regarding SB 1110 and discussed a Bay Area advocacy letter that had been drafted in support of the bill. Members discussed that the proposed 85% requirement had been removed from the bill, though there is still time for additional amendments and advocacy efforts as the legislative process continues.

3:45 p.m. – Local, State, and Federal Policy Discussion

Ben Wong and Cheryl Horney

Ben Wong and Cheryl Horney shared the policy presentation developed by CPAC Policy and Strategy Manager, Ericka Erickson, highlighting current local, state, and federal policy issues impacting the early childhood field.

SFCPAC 2026 CA Legislative Grid.docx

4:00 p.m. – Update on Charter Reform

Madison Holland, Executive Director, Prosperity Initiative, and Ryan Hazelton, CPAC Chair

Madison Holland and Ryan Hazelton presented updates regarding the ongoing city charter reform process. They shared information about how proposed changes could impact community-based organizations and discussed potential implications for funding, governance, and public services.

Charter Reform Presentation

4:31 p.m. – Adjournment by Ben Wong and Cheryl Horney

Next Title 5 Committee Meeting: May 14, 2026 from 3:00-4:30pm